

ITALIAN PSYCHOLOGY and
JEWISH EMIGRATION under FASCISM:
FROM FLORENCE TO JERUSALEM AND NEW YORK

BOOK PRESENTATION

What are the consequences of living under a dictatorship?

Leading Italian social historian Patrizia Guarnieri is interviewed by journalist and author Wlodek Goldkorn

Introduced and moderated by Marcella Simoni, NYU Florence

NOVEMBER 9, 2016 | 6:00 P.M. | VILLA SASSETTI

Patrizia Guarnieri's new book demonstrates how psychology as an academic discipline and practice was marginalized in Fascist Italy: antifascist and/or Jewish scholars were persecuted and many emigrated to the United States and Palestine, some succeeded, some did not, and very few came back.

Guarnieri sheds light on this 'uncomfortable' chapter in Italian history, which the country is still trying to come to terms with.
